

Checking yourself into Medicare

Prepare for Medicare

Approximately 6 months before you turn 65

Begin educating yourself on your Medicare options, reference the “A Quick Look at Medicare” or “Medicare & You” guides

Approximately 3 months before you turn 65

Enroll in Part A & B by contacting Social Security

Approximately 2 months before you turn 65

Call your agent to review Medicare rates and compare benefits to your group health coverage

Annual Plan Reminders

Check your doctor network

Verify all your prescription drugs are covered

Schedule an annual review of your coverage with your agent